

Dyad Conflict in SSA

A conflict group is two conflicting primary parties between which disagreement and violent clashes are a frequent occurrence.

Dyad Conflict in SSA

A conflict groups is two conflicting primary parties between which disagreement and violent clashes are a frequent occurrence.

For example the war between Government of Sudan and Sudan People's Liberation Movement (SPLM) has continued over 10 years with over 400 violent events. The line that you see above displays all the events on a timeline.

Dyad conflicts in SSA

A conflict groups is two conflicting primary parties between which disagreement and violent clashes are a frequent occurrence.

For example the war between Government of Sudan and Sudan People's Liberation Movement (SPLM) has continued over 10 years with over 400 violent events. The line that you see above displays all the events on a timeline.

A conflict group can be

Government and one more party which can or cannot be government

Two parties none of which are government

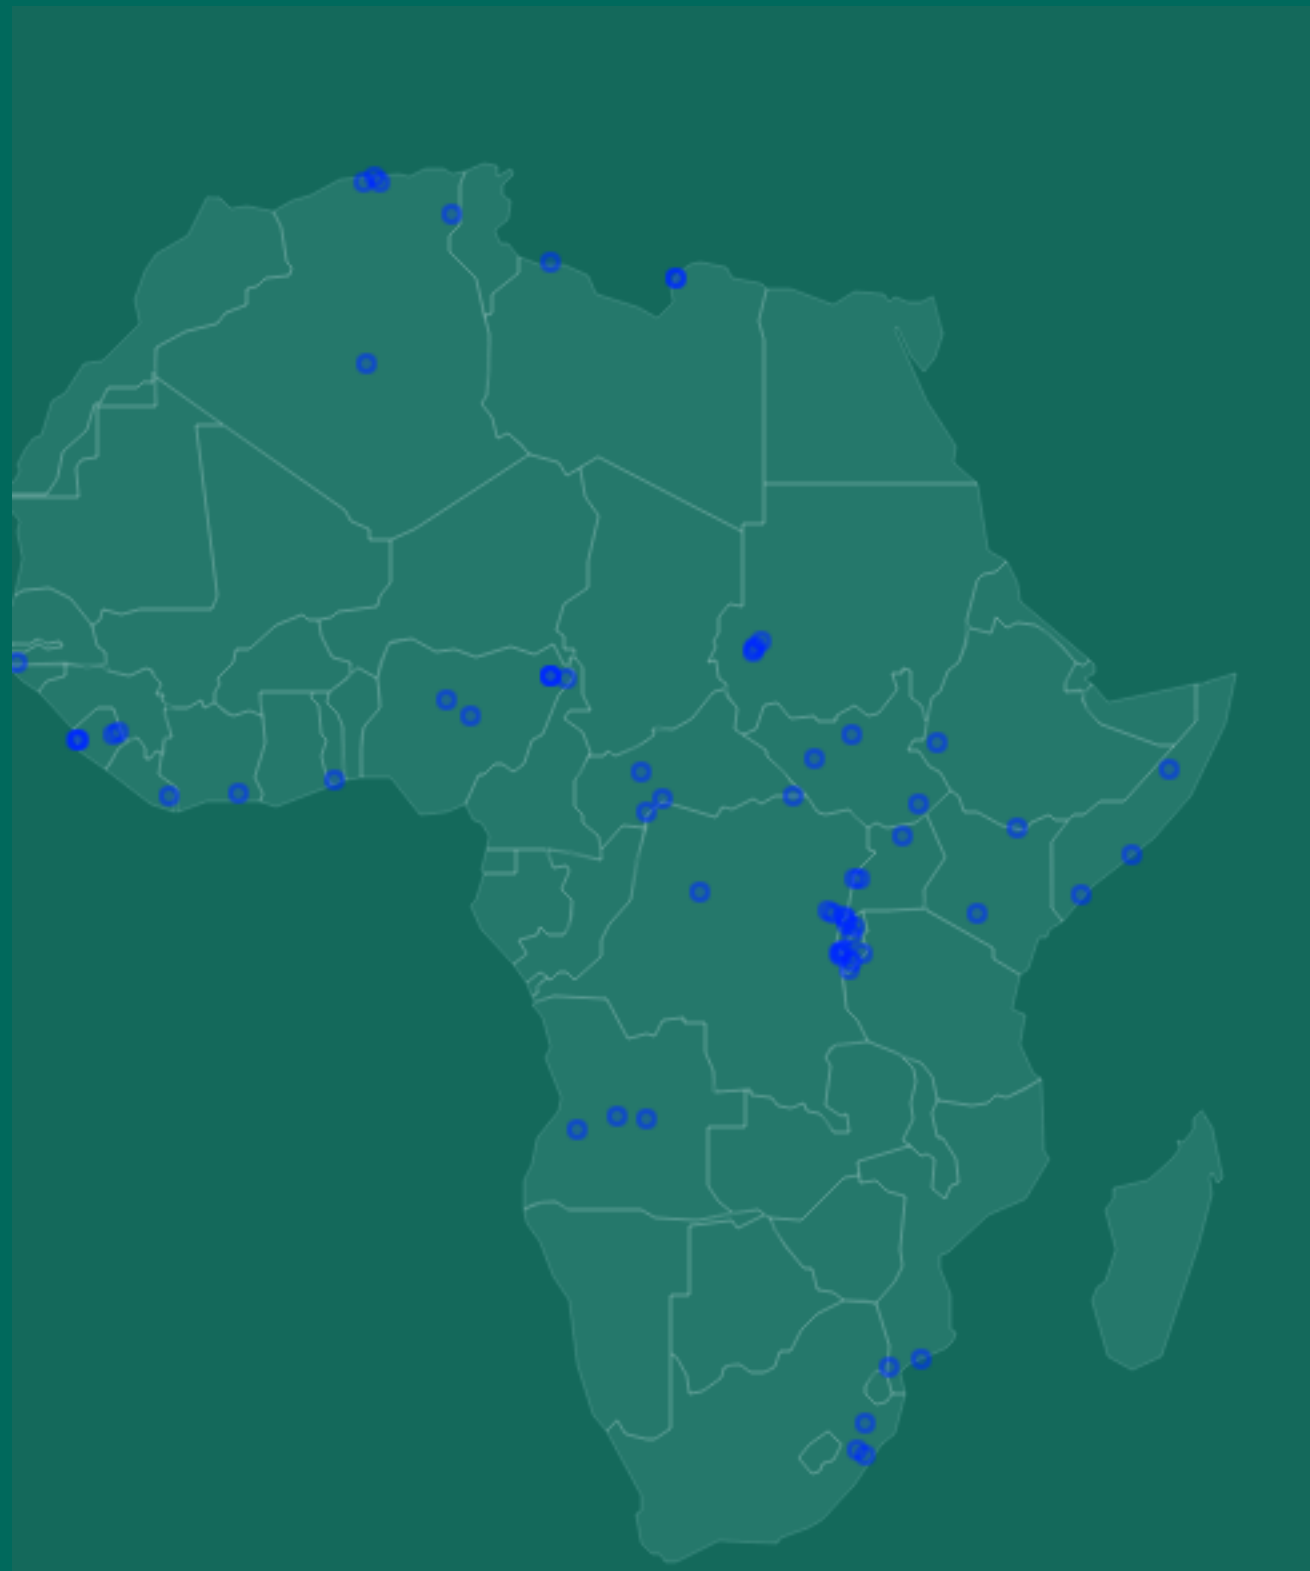

Any party carrying out one sided violence on civilians

Dyad Conflicts in SSA

There have been over 100 conflict groups at war
since 1989 in SSA

Dyad Conflict in SSA

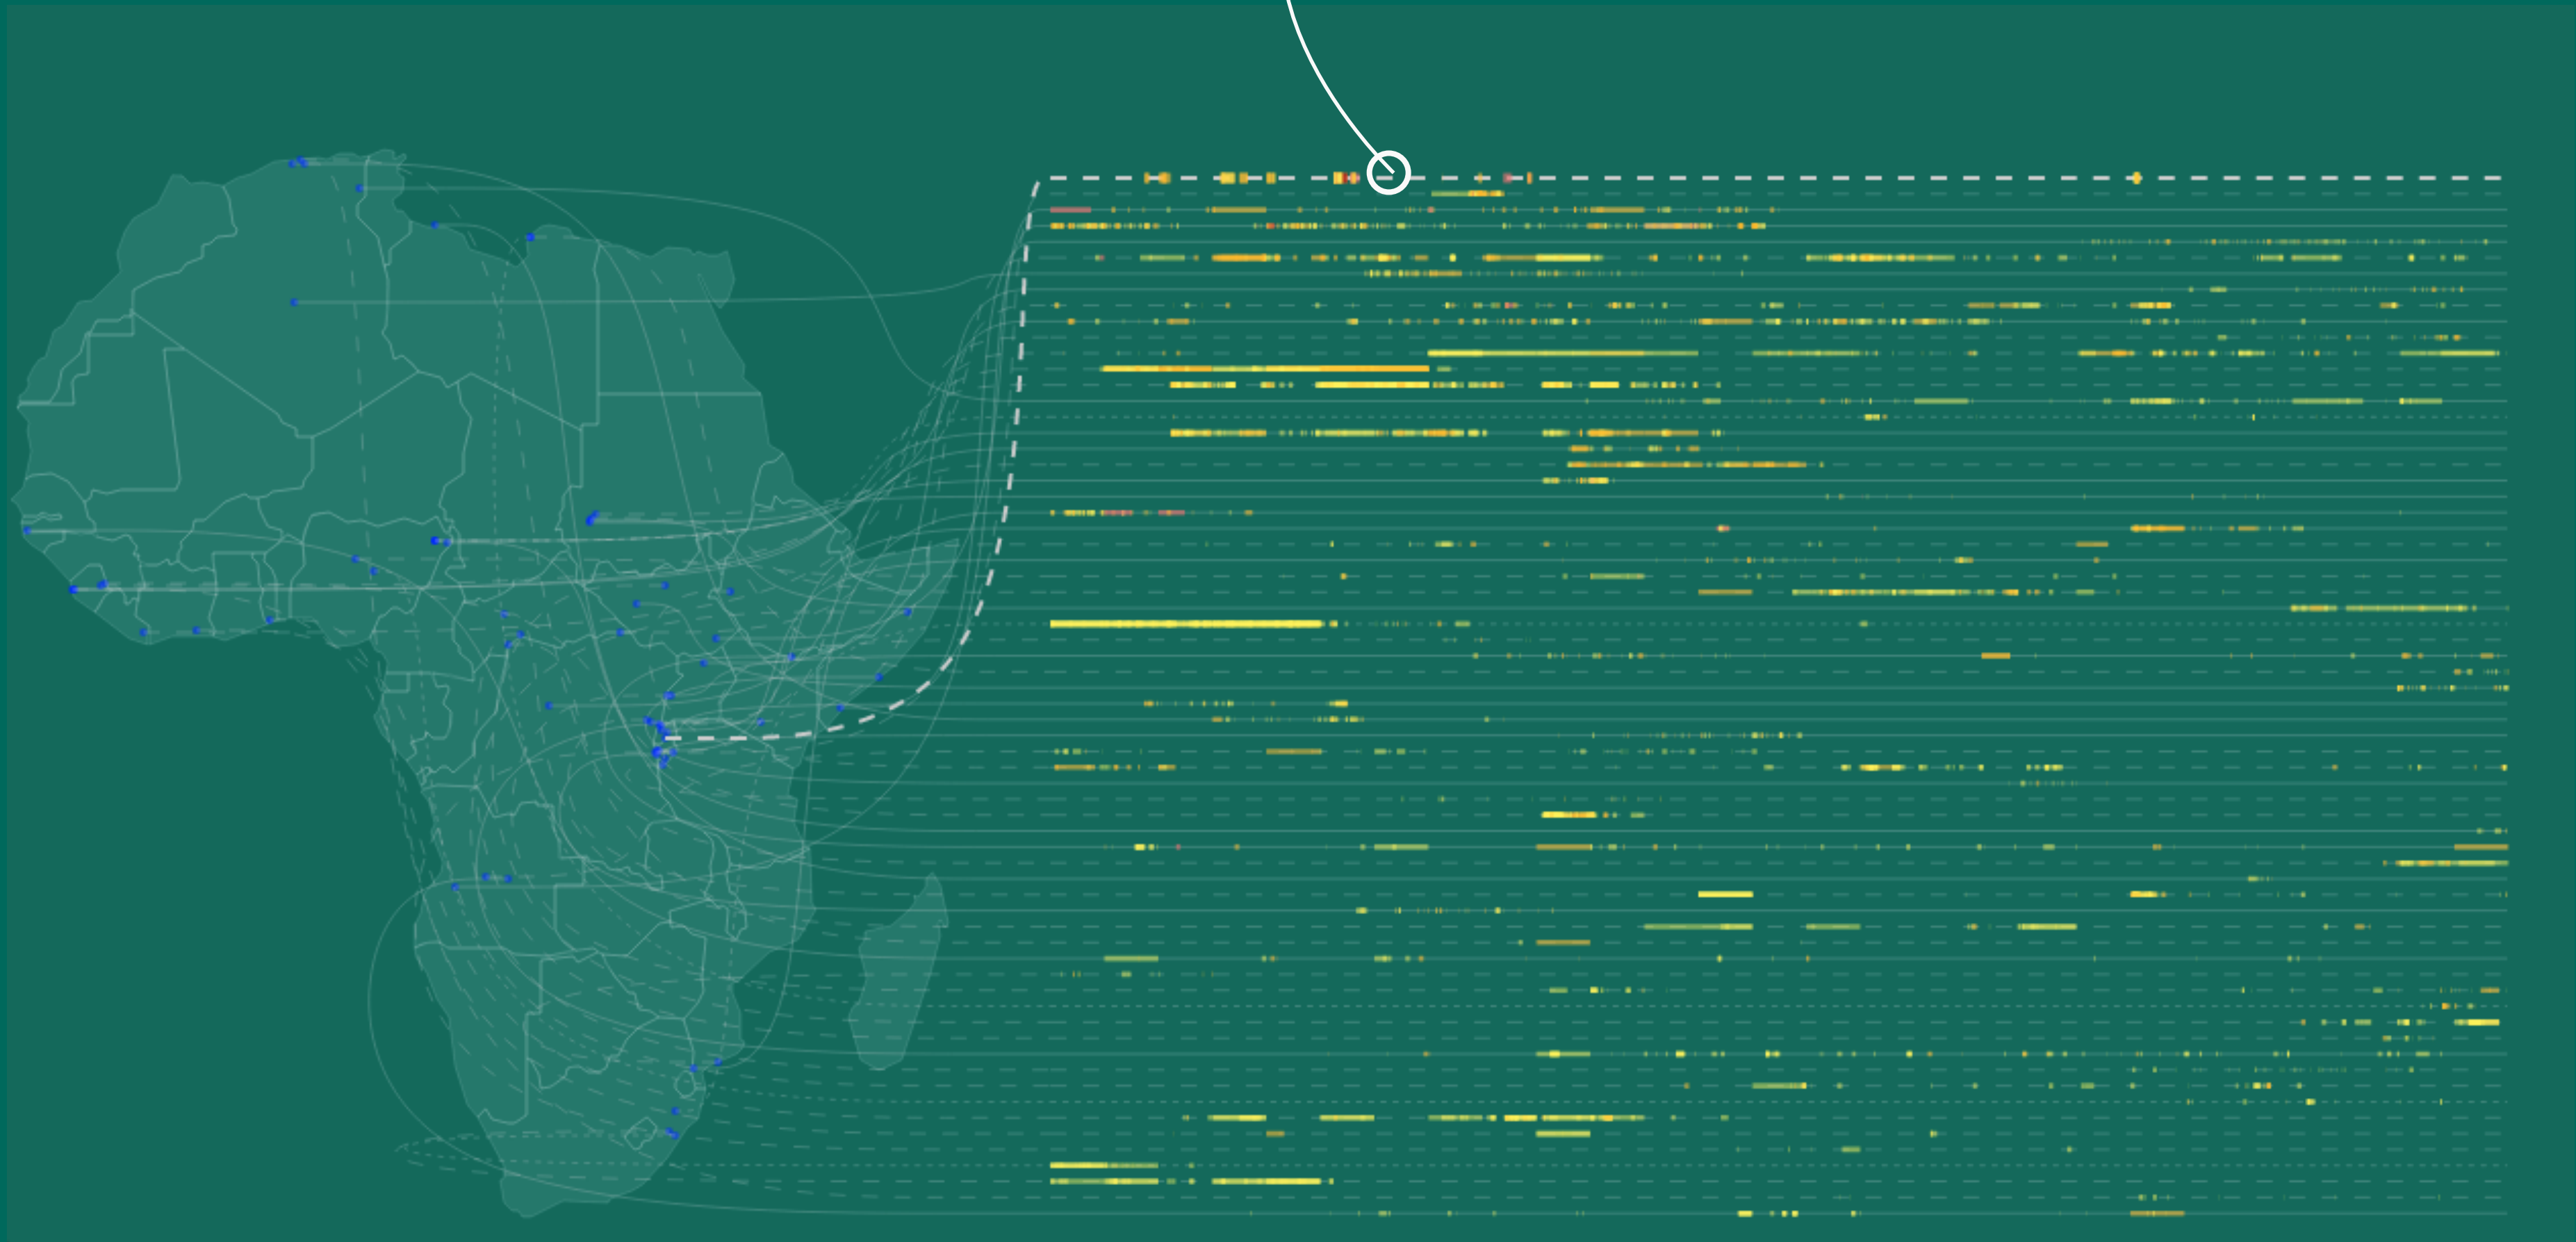

There have been over 100 conflict groups at war
since 1989 in SSA

The biggest problem with them is they don't get over.
You keep on seeing the same people fighting over

Dyad Conflict in SSA

The one sided violence initiated by the Government of Rwanda against civilians has led to a genocide

Dyad Conflict in SSA

Data source -
ucdp.uu.se

Type of dyads

- Conflict group involving government
- Conflict group two groups; neither of which is govt.
- One side violence inflicted on civilians by a single group (can be govt in power)

Fatalities;

- genocide
- > 5k
- > 4-5k
- > 3-4k
- > 2-3k
- > 1-2k
- < 1k

Estimate Used

- High Estimate
- Best Estimate
- Low Estimate

Type of dyad

All

Countries

All

